Shellfish allergy warning:

Please be aware that any item we sell may contain or may have come in contact with shellfish. If you have shellfish allergies, we recommend you not risk exposure to our products.

We cannot guarantee all fish to be boneless:

Some of our fillets contain a row of "pin bones" that usually disappear when deep-fried. In some fish they are more noticeable even after being cooked. If requested, we can remove them for you.

Due to the complexities of our menu, we are unable to give totals over the phone, if you NEED a total for your order, you must come in to the store to place and pay for that order. Thank you.
